BOYS AND DAUGHTERS OF OXFORD, TAKE NOTICE. The patrons and friends of Lebron Academy will celebrate the Fifteenth anniversary of this Literary Institute in the Meeting House near the Academy building in Hebron, on Wednesday the 5th of September next, at 10 o'clock A. M. A short introductory address will be given by the Rev. Dr. Wilson, which will be followed by speeches and social outpouring of sentiment from old Preceptors, pupils and friends such as Gov. Parris, John Ryerson, Esq., Hon. Elijah L. Hamlin, Hon. Hannibal Hamlin, and others. Let all who cherish a just regard for this venerable Institution attend, to make the occasion truly "a feast of reason and a flow of soul."

The Skowhegan Clarion says that the statement made by a Hunker democrat, that of the 76 votes cast for Morrill last year, in Solon, 30 had expressed their intention to vote for Wells this year, cannot be true, as the call for a Republican Convention contained in that paper last week, contained the names of 82 good and true men, who were obtained in 36 hours, and that 25 more could have been obtained had there been more time.

NEW JERUSALEM. The Gardiner Transcript says that the next annual meeting of the Sunday Association of the New Jerusalem Church, will be held in that city on the 16th of September next. The Church of that society, which is now nearly completed, will be dedicated on that day. Rev. Mr. Goddard, of Bridgewater, Maine, will preach the dedication sermon.

Are the Issues National?

The Boston Post, the organ in Massachusetts of the Pierce administration and the slave power, declares that "the progress of the contest in Maine is watched with intense interest all over the Union; for the issues are uncommon, and CONCERN THE NATION."

This is eminently true, but there are those who wish to deceive the people of Maine, and to cheat them into the belief that the issues in the present campaign are not national, but local—not general, but special—not involving the question between slavery and freedom, but simply the question of rum or no rum. The Boston Post knows better and is greater sinner than the thimble-rigging and deceptive cheats in Maine, who are running Nebraska and slavery locofocoism in the name of strait whiggery, the Post ventures to speak of the issues as uncommon and concern the nation.

The Post describes the Republican movement as "temperance fanaticism, and treason to the federal constitution." The idea which the Boston Post would inculcate is this—that the Maine Law is a piece of temperance fanaticism, and never ought to have been meddled with or enacted. And in reference to the subject of slavery, it regards what it calls abolitionism as the rankest treason; it goes for the present legislation of the country regarding slavery in the territories as a finality until the slave power may wish to change it.

We call the attention of Republicans throughout the State to the following statement of the Boston Post, showing them what they must expect:

"An army of foreign orators—all abolitionists—are in the field, declaiming about the "slave power." Emissaries, too, are all over the State, hard at work for the same ends. But the democracy are meeting them with a gallant spirit and a vigilant eye. It is organizing in each town and county—the very best preparation for a campaign. The cry everywhere is, to let bygones go, to forget old feelings, old prejudices, all things tending to a division of the democratic strength; and to move for the things that tend to Union. This is the true policy.—The great interests of the State and of the country demand it. In this way the path will be opened for the redemption of Maine from the pit of fanaticism and disunion in which she now lays side by side with her old Massachusetts mother, and restore her to the family of CONSTITUTIONAL STATES.

Every democrat and every true patriot in the Union will say, God speed the Maine democracy in their patriotic work! The days of September are approaching. Shall it be the good fortune of Maine to succeed in a new breast the torrent of fanaticism and sectionalism that is sweeping over New England? Shall she place herself on high national ground? Shall the good sense, patriotism and intelligence of her citizens place her in harmony with the land of a Washington and a Jefferson? Shall she again be put on the glorious roll of States that make the president know nothing nam and treason odious? And shall she, from such an elevation, say to the misguided north, Turn! I lead the way back to the solid platform of constitutional liberty?"

Here is the invitation given to Maine to follow in the footsteps of the State of Virginia in her recent election by which Frank Pierce's administration was endorsed, and the slave power strengthened in the territories. Here is the invitation given to the north to creep back to the state of submission to the dictation of the slave power, even after the solemn pledge of faith had been violated and the last barrier against the spread of slavery over free territory had been stricken down.

The Post says that the "Democracy" of Maine desire to say to the "MISGUIDED NORTH," that it will lead them back to do the bidding of the slave power. The north, now that it begins to assert its rights—to repudiate doughfaceism—to show some stiffness of backbone—is regarded as misguided by the paid minions of the administration, and the democracy, the loco office-holders, and the great Whigs offer to lead the free north back to the position of strict obedience to the slave power, for that is, without disguise, precisely what the Boston Post means. Will the Republicans of Maine consider these matters and act accordingly?

Loco Caucus.

The caucus of the Pierce and Douglas, or rum and slavery party, was held at the City Hall on Saturday night. It was not an over attractive audience. The principal feature of the occasion was a speech from that political giant and virtuous man, Samuel H. Blake, in which he made a violent and bigoted attack upon the character of the present officers of the State of Maine, from Gov. Morrill, down to the humblest officer. Such mean and reckless attacks, from such a source, only show how little real value some men place upon either character or reputation, and how little they possess of genuine good character, and how meritorious is their reputation. The present State government would use nothing, we venture to say, in point of temperance, chastity honesty, or fidelity to the public welfare, by a very close comparison with the government at the time that Blake was president of the senate. The idea of a comparison is provoking suggestive of certain facts and incidents, which, though in charity are covered up, cannot be forgotten. If Mr. Blake has a fancy for, in his classical language, of "gutting and skinning," he may perhaps find that there are blows to take, as well as blows to give. We leave him at present in the public august which has remarks occasioned, and he applause of such creatures as he basks in and caught.

Several communications, poetry and other matters from correspondents are accumulating upon our hands, but will receive attention by and by. Correspondents must exercise patience, even if the favors of political friends have the preference until after the election. The State of Maine leads the column of Free States in the great contest for freedom, temperance and humanity, and the prize must exert its widest influence in for wresting the good cause.

"A magnanimous regard to truth, and to principle is sure in the end to triumph."—State of Maine.

True, and so it is just as true that a wanton disregard of "truth and principle" is sure of ultimate defeat, in what condition is the editor of the State of Maine likely to come out of the contest.

We are indebted to John Poinfret, Esq., of this city, for an elegant Bouquet.

Republican County Convention.

On Thursday, the 23d day of August, the Republicans of Penobscot county are to meet in general convent on, at the City Hall, in Bangor, for the purpose of nominating senators and county officers, and to make the necessary arrangements for securing a triumph, in the election, in behalf of freedom, temperance, and humanity. We trust that all who feel the importance of the crisis which the country is rapidly approaching, and the effect which the result of the election in Maine will have upon the general issue in her sister States, will find it convenient to be present, and meet their brethren and friends in council.

Momentous issues are upon us. The reckless and relentless slave oligarchy has seized upon the reins of government, and is wielding them for the destruction of liberty. The nominal head of the nation is but a plant tool in the hands of the slave power. False to his constituents—false to his own professions and promises, again and again reiterated—false to his conscience and his God—he is content to employ himself in registering the decrees of Jefferson Davis, David R. Atchison, and such as they. And it has now come to this—if you would preserve the rights of freemen, you must yourselves assert and maintain them. He to whom you for a season confided the trust, has proved recreant and faithless, and yet, strange to say, there are men among us, and all around us, arranging their plans so to deceive and mislead the people as to pave the way for his re-election! Come, then, and let us take counsel together, not only how to maintain the ascendancy of sound principles and good government at home, but also how to save ourselves and the country from the humiliation, the deep disgrace, of another Nebraska President.

How Pierce's administration appears to an old Democrat.

Just now, when the leaders of the Strait Whigs are shying up to the administration of Frank Pierce, and hope to be taken in full fellowship, it is well to observe how it administration is regarded by an old veteran democrat.

Hon. John M. Niles, Postmaster General under Mr. Van Buren, has written a letter to the Hartford Republican upon the political events of the day. He has recently travelled extensively in the West, and says:

"The Administration must be sunk very low with the whole people, when on a tour of four thousand miles, embracing ten States and one Territory, and conversing with all sorts of persons, and hearing conversation among others, we in no instance witnessed a defense of the Administration by a single individual. We saw and conversed with several persons, some gentlemen of distinction, whose position is such that they may be regarded as giving their support to the Administration; but they did not defend it—and one, a distinguished editor in Ohio, seemed to admit the "this Administration was the heaviest burden that his party had to sustain."

The Hon. gentleman gives the following language to express his views of the course of the President in regard to Kansas affairs.

"The law organizing the territory is not a local act, but a law of the United States, which the President has taken an oath to support; yet he permits it to be violated, and the federal authority to be overthrown. In this extraordinary course is not the President making himself a party to those outrages; and if civil dissensions come, and blood is shed, will he not, in moral point of view, at least, be responsible for it? The people of Kansas appeal to him for protection in vain. He cannot hear them; he can only hear when Stringfellow and Atchison speak.

The neglect of the Executive to enforce the laws and repress violence and outrage upon the rights and liberties of the people of Kansas, is as much an abuse of power, as the commission of positive acts of oppression. By organizing the territory of Kansas, and extending the laws of the United States over it, the Government invited settlers there, and pledged its faith to protect them in the enjoyment of all those rights which the act of organization allowed them, and not to do so is a breach of faith towards the people of the territory—as well as a gross dereliction of duty."

In regard to the course to be pursued by the people of the North, Mr Niles says:

"If it is asked what they can do, I answer, let the people of the free States assume such an attitude in relation to this lawless wickedness, as the occasion demands and the President will faint—whether he did in Mexico or not—before the moral power of a free and indignant people, and come up to his first and highest duty, enjoined upon him by an oath and office, to see the laws faithfully executed."

Mr. Niles has the reputation of being a far-seeing and sagacious Democrat, and such sentiments uttered boldly and fearlessly, will cause a shaking of the dry bones in the already shattered ranks of the Democracy.

MAINE BOYS AND GIRLS ABROAD.—A gentleman who has been spending some time in New York State, informed us a while since that he learned there were several Bangor boys pursuing their studies at an excellent institution of learning, the Rensselaer Institute at Troy. While in company with some of the Professors there, he learned that in Maine boys had no peers in that institution. This, he regarded as a high compliment, as it is well known that the Rensselaer Institute is as exacting in the discipline and work as West Point Academy, none being permitted to take the graduating honors without possessing great strength and power. The boys that he well spoken of, were all three graduates of Bangor Boys' High School, and had received instruction, and a clear, accurate drill under David Worcester, Esq.

It is a pleasant matter, in connection with this subject, to remark that at the same time this compliment was given to the boys, there was, at the Troy Female Seminary, one of our Bangor girls, a graduate of the Bangor Girls' High School, who stood without a superior in her class. It happened, recently, when application was made for a Preceptress to a popular academy, this very scholar was introduced to notice, and recommended most highly. We may add that the engagement was at once made, and true Miss Esther P. Hammatt has been installed as Preceptress of Hampden Academy.

LOUISVILLE RIOT.—The City Council of Louisville have passed resolutions declaring that the foreign population provoked the recent riots by deeds of violence and bloodshed, and have appointed a committee to enquire into the condition and necessities of the families made destitute by the outbreak, and referred a resolution to pay for the property destroyed. A number of affidavits are published by the Louisville Journal, going to show that the first shot fired was by an Irishman, and was unprovoked. Two of these affidavits are made by Irish Catholics, who saw the men fired. [illegible]

Custom House Changes.—We understand that James Mann, one of the weighers and gangers at this port, has been removed, and Gen. Wendell P. Heath appointed in his place.—Portland Ad.

We had the above paragraph in type when we observed its contradiction in the Argus. The Portland Expositor of the 16th, repeats the fact of the removal and says that "report says that Mr. Mann has gone to Washington, to learn, if possible, why he has been so unceremoniously set aside." The Advertiser of Saturday says:

"Why not publish all the facts, Mr. Argus, and say that Mr. M. was ordered to be removed, but by waiting Washington he got the order countermanded."

Rev. P. J. Leo will deliver the closing lecture of his second course in the City Hall this Evening at eight o'clock precisely.

Subject, the "Supremacy of the Pope."

A collection to defray incidental expenses, will be taken at the conclusion of the Lecture.

THE YELLOW FEVER AT PORTSMOUTH.—The members of the New York Corn Exchange on Thursday morning appointed a committee of fifteen gentlemen to collect funds for the benefit of the sufferers by yellow fever in Norfolk, Portsmouth and Gosport, Virginia. The Petersburg (Va.) Democrat, referring to the cause of the epidemic in Norfolk and Portsmouth, says:

"In Norfolk and Portsmouth, they have had scarcely any rain for two months past, and the boiling heat of a tropical sun has prepared these cities for the disease, making it literally a hot bed for the pestilence. In both these places, but especially in the former, there is a large quantity of made ground—that is, ground rescued from the sea. This ground formed by throwing logs of wood into the mud at low tide, and covering them with earth till an elevation is attained higher than the flood tide.

On this precarious foundation shanties are erected, which the necessities of poor people compel them to occupy. In the course of time, the sea, which continues to soak through the logs which form the basis of this "made ground," gradually rots the wood, and reduces the whole mass into a state of putrefaction. Thus with the want of cleanliness, which is, alas, too often the attendant of extreme poverty, renders these localities perfect plague spots, fitted for the reception and propagation of any disease, more especially one of the nature of yellow fever."

State Policy—The Game.

The Pierce party in this State, do not dare to meet the people on the issue of Freedom or Slavery which the Administration has forced upon the Country. They know the sentiments of our people too well to undertake directly to bring the voters of the State to endorse the Kansas fraud. But indirectly they mean to reach that result. "State Policy" is the cry by which they hope to succeed in diverting the people from the true issue. "The election," they say, "has nothing to do with National questions." This is all deception. They know better.

The same game is being played in other States. Says the New York Evening Post:

"We hope the democracy of New York will not be drummed into by the tin-pan clamor of state finances, into the love which has been placed for them by a clique of federal dependants, who naturally desire nothing so much now, as silence upon federal questions.

While arguments for the succession are hatching their presidential eggs in southern sands, it may be convenient to have the attention of the northern people diverted to some other object, but that trick is worn out. It has succeeded twice; it will not succeed again. There can be but one leading issue in the next election in this State, and that will be on the approval or disapproval of the course of the administration in Kansas. All other questions must be only incidental and subordinate. Silence upon that subject is approval, and approval will be instruction."

Could the men who are engaged in this work of deception succeed, they would be first and foremost in claiming the victory as an endorsement of the national Administration, Fugitive Slave Law, Nebraska Swindle, Missouri Bowdyism and all.

J. M. P.

THE FIRST WEEK'S EXPERIENCE. The liquor law went into operation on Monday morning. In this city the traffic has been thoroughly abandoned—at least nothing is visible to the eye, and from the disconsolate appearance of the old topers as they wander with hurried steps from one old place of resort to another, or are seen in brown study pasted near the doors where they held fiery converse with the now departed spirits, it seems a pretty sure sign that their old enemy is put out of their reach. It is mainly the improvident, penless topers who feel at present the deprivation. The more moderate drinkers have laid in a stock that will last another year. A small anecdote illustrates what we have said.

Robert is well known to our citizens as literally a know nothing man, and a good porter, with two elements mainly prominent. One is to know the most direct line from the store or market to your house—and the other is to be sure that the fleetest pace is transferred from your pocket to his own. Then with his shoulders elevated about twice the height of the wheel, he cheerfully starts off and you have no further care. For three weeks past Robert was in constant demand, to deliver the demijohns and jugs in all parts of the city, and his silver pile is rapidly increasing. On Monday he found his business had fallen off—it was a day like that when the wife of old could find no more vessels to fill with oil, not a jug or bottle was left for Robert's wheelbarrow.

This passed the day, and Tuesday. On Wednesday Robert was asked if he had seen the Governor. "Been him? no, not don't want to see such a man. He signed the law that cuts off my business. A pooty man he is, to cut off other folks's grog—and then go right down to the Beach and drink as much as he's a mind to. He does, for I heard a man say so. I don't want to see such a fellow." Robert spoke feelingly, for he says that his wheelbarrow has distributed not less than forty barrels of the ardent.

Robert's business is not the only one that has fallen off. The present week up to Thursday evening, our bridewell has been without a tenant. Not a drunken man been seen in our streets. The shops and stores where spirit has been sold are being turned into other purposes. And the good feeling with which the law is generally received, speaks well for those who have to make the greatest sacrifices in observing it.—Portsmouth (N. J.) Journal.

AN INCIDENT.—The Lawrence Courier says that some weeks since a stranger was seen in the middle of the Merrimack river, dodging about in the water in the most comical manner. A boat was sent out after him and being suddenly out of his head he was taken to the watch-house. The sum of six hundred dollars was found in his pocket. It afterward appeared that he had been traveling from the west to his home in Maine, and being unwell upon the route and dosed himself with opiates until they affected his reason, and he had fled into the river under the full conviction that several persons were endeavoring to shoot him. His queer antics in the water were nothing more or less than attempts to dodge the bullets of his assailants. On the following day being somewhat recovered he was sent to his home under care of an officer, and a few days since Mr Clark, the Assistant City Marshal of Lawrence received a letter from him thanking him and others for their care and kind attentions during his confinement.

An Address to the Voters of Maine.

Fellow Citizens. At the Quarterly Session of the Grand Division of the Sons of Temperance, of this State, held July 17, 1855, the undersigned were appointed "a Committee to prepare and publish an address to the voters of Maine." Pursuant to the design of our appointment, we now make to you an humble appeal.

The spirit of truth is calling men to a higher and nobler life; and in response to the call, the mighty throbbings of the human heart of our State, are startling the world from the slumber of ages; and true to its early chosen and wonderfully significant motto, it now leads mankind in the noblest conflict of the age.

The Temperance Question has assumed such a position as to compel every man to become a friend or foe, and a final adjustment of the issue now before the people of Maine, must do much in determining the moral condition of the country for generations to come. Some may honestly think that we overrate our present responsibilities, but those accustomed to study closely the laws and force of human influence will see that our position is fearfully important.

That the Temperance Cause has become connected with the civil affairs of the State, is not so much the result of the direct designs of either its friends or enemies, as of the legitimate operations of the enterprise itself. And it is the extreme of folly to attempt to deny it legislative action because of its purely moral character—for civil laws very naturally grow out of and have reference to the moral necessities of the people. Whenever the natural rights of the people are invaded, they may justly and lawfully demand protection, and that protection should be ample—equal to the necessities which demand it. By reference to statistics it is manifest that intemperance had become alarmingly prevalent—and the whole system of the manufacture, sale and use of alcoholic beverages had become so exceedingly oppressive, that there came a cry from ten thousand tongues for protection.

The annual destruction of 20,000,000 bushels of the people's bread, and the use of 100,000,000 gallons of spirituous and malt liquors in its stead, has become a subject worthy of the attention of all true intelligent citizens.—If its dram drinking is the chief cause of the pauperism of the country; in a single year about 150,000 persons are aided by public charity, at an expense to the sober and industrious people of this nation, of nearly $2,000,000.

The annual conviction of about 30,000 persons for crime in this country, with the greater amount of vice which never receives legal investigation, and the immense amount necessarily expended in sustaining the criminal laws, is also a subject not unworthy the attention of the fathers of the country. And when it is found that about seven-eighths of the crimes of the people are caused directly by intemperance, it is not at all strange that honest legislators have deemed it their duty to interfere.

Then the annual destruction of 30,000 lives in the United States by intemperance is an overwhelming item in this account; thus each year, this terrible custom, utterly destroying by death and crime, more than 50,000 of our fellow citizens. Allowing one-half this number to have been the annual average since the 4th of July, 1776, about 2,000,000 of our people have been lost to themselves, in consequence of this monster vice.

And then add to these overwhelming facts, the vast number of innocent victims of drunkenness—the friends of the intemperate, these have suffered unprotected—the enlightened and christian government under which they have lived, and suffered and bled, and died, has not only consented to their wrongs, but legalized their ruin!

Could the unwritten history of this stupendous wrong be made to appear in all its horrid details, every man in the world, in whose breast lives an honest thought, would demand an immediate and utter prohibition of the manufacture and sale of intoxicating beverages. We contend, then, that the nature of the subject itself, forces the duty of prohibition upon the public guardians of the people's rights.

And the profoundest statesman who can see nothing in this vast subject worthy of his official action, or who will attempt to protect the perpetrators of this outrage upon the rights of the people, is either destitute of integrity or common sense. Such a man is utterly unworthy of the confidence of the community, unfit for any place in the councils of an intelligent and virtuous people, and should be compelled to relinquish instantly all connection with the public affairs of the country—for his political principles are not adapted to the "science of government," but to intrigue and public plunder.

And strange as it may seem, there are many in our midst, who, or gain, would continue to swell this fearful tide of human woes—to live on the tears and blood of murdered innocence, and when an outraged and insulted people demand protection of their interests, they are loud in their complaints of oppression! But we ask, whose rights are invaded? No man has the right to convert the natural productions of the soil, designed by a gracious Providence to supply the wants of mankind, into a deadly poison—Neither has any one the right to engage in a business which is at war with all the interests of humanity. The manufacturer and vender of alcoholic beverages are guilty of these crimes. Neither has a man the right to disqualify himself by the use of these beverages, for the proper performance of the duties which grow out of the various relations of life, he has no right to make either himself or his family paupers, to be supported by his industrious neighbors, he has no right to qualify himself and his children for the commission of crime. That those who use this deadly poison do these things to a fearful extent is well known to all. If, then, the whole system of intemperance is founded on injustice and error, it is not oppressive to prohibit the manufacture and sale of intoxicating drinks.

The wives and children of inebriates have rights, the crushed and murdered victims of the hideous traffic have rights, the friends of the thirty thousand annually slain by intemperance have rights, the friends of the inmates of our poor-houses, jails and prisons, have rights, the tax payers, who now are compelled to contribute largely for the support of this monstrous wrong, have rights, and those engaged in the work, have rights.

And the means perpetrators of this awful outrage on the rights of humanity must be made to respect the justice of our laws on this subject, the decree is gone forth,—the claims of humanity are heard,—the tears and agonies of the oppressed are remembered,—and the time of civil retribution is come, for the arm of justice is uplifted in defense of the right.

Would to God we could end the chapter here. But another class of misguided citizens demand our attention. We now refer to gentlemen who have seen fit from the outset to oppose the legislative action of our state on this subject. The two great political parties which heretofore have given form and position to the political affairs of the State, are now degenerated into two weak and corrupt associations, divided only in name, but united in their singular and disgusting opposition to the moral sentiment of the State.

The issues which were the occasion of their original formation, and which for years were worthy of the honest differences of virtuous and high-minded citizens, are now so far adjusted as no longer to attract the attention of the country. New and vital questions now agitate the public mind. Hence it is worse than folly to keep alive old and rotten organizations—for there can be no object to secure but the spoils of office. And hence the honest and virtuous portion of those old parties are now seriously united in sustaining the right in the living issues of the day. As honest men, as sincere friends to the country they could differ about merely financial questions, but when subjects involving moral right and wrong become the issues they see eye to eye. This view of the case explains the fact that the masses have now united in the defense of the right, who were before divided on comparatively unimportant questions. This fact most clearly demonstrates the honesty and intelligence of the people.

The whigs at their recent State Convention declared "that the present intensified liquor law is in some of its provisions impracticable, unwise, and unconstitutional." They also declared themselves in "favor of effective laws for judicious regulation and salutary restrictions of the traffic of intoxicating liquors."

Grave statesmen of Maine! Why, these gentlemen, if they get the State (?) will give us then a good old fashioned, practicable, wise and constitutional license law, for the "judicious regulation and salutary restriction of the traffic in intoxicating liquors!"

George Evans, E. W. Farley, and William S. Cochran etc., are the men, the "State of Maine and Bangor Journal," are the papers, which are now leading the once noble and honorable whig party of Maine, in this disgusting crusade against the moral sentiments of the people.

They propose taking us back twenty years into the state of things which well nigh made us a nation of drunkards, and which, we apprehend, was the occasion of the present low and desperate condition of these very gentlemen to day. Voters of Maine—Are you prepared to go to the ballot-box in September, and endorse these men as patriots, these vile sheets as faithful journals of truth, and these grossly insulting propositions, as practicable, wise, and constitutional measures, adapted to the present condition of society?

We call your attention to this point particularly—will you vote for a party thus degraded, thus beclouded, and thus forsaken of its once noble and virtuous supporters? We deliberately declare, that no intelligent and high-minded man can identify himself with such an organization.

The once powerful and patriotic Democratic party have sunk to an equally desperate and besotted condition. At their recent State Convention, they declared that our Liquor Law has its prototype only in the statutes of the dark ages, and they further say, "in demanding as a party the essential modifications of the existing Liquor Law, with the conviction that we are true friends of sobriety and good order, than those who uphold it."

And while the members of the said Convention declared themselves in favor of suitable prohibitory laws, we are safe in the conclusion that they are "in favor," in reality of an old fashioned license law, or no law at all. Judge Wells recently said in a public speech:

"I would have a law, that each town decide by a vote who shall sell, and prohibit him from selling to them who would use it improperly, and would have all act as they please."

The Portland Expositor in endorsing the Democratic platform says:—"That platform, is unalterable hostility to all the principles and all the provisions of the Maine Law, and to rear in its stead a judicious system of license."

A well known and prominent member of the party, desires it distinctly understood, that it is the purpose of the party, if it gets the state, to repeal the Maine Law.

If we can judge correctly by the spirit and tone of such papers as the Argus, The Age, The Democrat, etc., and by the personal history of such men as Cary, Pillsbury, Wells, Roberts and their coadjutors, we conclude that their "suitable prohibitory laws" would present little difficulty in the way of the "unrestricted sale of intoxicating liquors." These true friends of sobriety and good order would not, we judge, do much in relieving the State from this social oppression.

Their patriotism is severely shocked by the attempt of the friends of education in our last Legislature to assist some of the Seminaries of learning in their efforts to educate the youth of this State, thus preparing them for useful lives, but they have nothing to say of the $150,000 annually paid out of the "people's money" to support the 6000 paupers of the State—made paupers almost exclusively by intemperance. They forget that Democratic Maine has from her earliest history assisted the educational movements of the State—they do not forget, however, that they speak falsely, when they say that the present administration of the State attempted to lavish one hundred thousand dollars of the people's money on favorite sectarian institutions.

"The government of this State, of which Anson P. Morrill is the head," did no such thing, and these gentlemen were fully aware of it.—The committee on education in the legislature reported a bill in favor of giving to certain institutions $20,000 a year for three years—about one eighth of the amount expended every year to pay one item only of the cost of intemperance—and the "government" of the State did not grant even that.

The plea was, the State was poor! Poor!—Yes, and when these restraints of the rum traffic are swept off, she will be poorer than now. No money for education, but hundreds of thousands, and even millions for intemperance! We ask you in the name of crushed and bleeding humanity, how will you vote? You are shut up to this one issue—"rum or no rum."

A democratic congress, with Andrew Jackson in the presidential chair, in 1834, passed a law prohibiting the sale of liquors in any of the Indian Territories, on pain of a fine of $500, and for attempting "to introduce any spirituous liquors or wine into the Indian country," a fine of $300, and for distilling in the country a fine of $1000. The president was authorized "to cause the boats, stores, packages, and places of deposits to be searched, (?) and if any such spirituous liquors or wine is found—the goods (?) the boats, (?) packages and peltries of such persons," were all "forfeited, one half to the use of the informer, and the other half to the use of the United States." And any person in the United States employ, or any Indian, could lawfully take and destroy (?) any ardent spirits or wine found in the Indian country. The distilleries were to be broken up and destroyed, and if necessary, the military force of the United States could be employed "to execute that duty." This law excepted the supplies "necessary for the officers of the United States and troops of the service, under the direction of the war department."

If our present "intensified liquor law" is anti-democratic in its application to the "great temperance cause" in 1855, and "only has its prototype in the statutes of the dark ages," what was the democracy of Andrew Jackson in 1834? Was the administration of that illustrious man the "dark ages" to which these gentlemen refer? Does democracy have a greater care for the moral and physical condition of the red men of the forest, than for the white men of Maine? Consistency, gentlemen, is a jewel. Repudiate the democracy of 1834, or be ashamed of the democracy of 1855.

Voters of Maine—We appeal, not to your partizan prejudices or preferences, but to your reason—to "the sober second thought of the people." We ask you to support men, not as men merely, but as the exponents of principles of vital importance to the world—not only at the present time, but to "generations unborn." The influence of your votes, for weal or woe, will not be limited to the present age, but like a mighty wave, will roll down the tide of time, widening and extending in its course till it shall reach the latest posterity.

Will the christian men of Maine go from their family altars to the ballot-box and vote for such measures as these parties propose? Your consciences, your Bibles, your God forbid it.

DEATH OF HON. ABBOTT LAWRENCE OF BOSTON.—This melancholy event occurred on Saturday morning last, at a quarter past eleven o'clock. A protracted illness had prepared the public mind for the sad tidings, but the grief which shall pervade the many circles in which he had acted, will be no less deep and abiding. Elevated to wealth and influence by his own abilities, it is his highest eulogy, that he had the heart and will to employ both, for the good of others. Around he has been regarded as the true type of the American Merchant and Gentleman, upright in all his dealings, wise in his advice counsels, and worthy of all the honors which his fellow citizens have conferred upon him. He died at the age of 63, having acquired a distinguished name, which his friends will long cherish with just pride, and which will not soon be erased from the memory of our New England people.—[Portland, Argus.]

THE NEW MARINE HOSPITAL. The work on the new hospital at Marine's Point has so far progressed as to give some idea of the type and size of the building. It is in the form of an H, and is to have verandahs filling the openings so as to make it nearly square, the base being 96 by 94 feet. It is to be three stories high, and the front facing towards the city, is to have an open work iron portico or verandah, elevated as high as the roof. The edifice is to be of brick, with trimmings of hewn granite and towering above the fine old trees, will add a new feature of interest to the fine scenery of that section.

[The building contract, we believe, is something over sixty thousand dollars.—[Portland Advertiser.

First Premium PIANO FORTES!

WE have received the agency, for Bangor and vicinity, for the sale of which are acknowledged by competent judges to be, in the essential requisites of a Piano, the best now made in this country.

Mr Brown was of the old firm of Brown & Hallett, (whose Pianos have been long in the market, and are much admired for their durability and purity of tone,) subsequently ten years foreman in the justly celebrated manufactory of the late Jonas Chickering, Esq., where he perfected and applied his PATENT GRAND ACTION.

Piano Fortes of their manufacture are distinguished for EXPRESSIVE, pure musical quality of tone, and superior elastic action. See extract from Report of Committee on Musical Instruments, at the Rhode Island Society for the encouragement of Domestic Industry, holden September 12th to 16th, 1854.

"After a careful examination of the workmanship, externally and internally, and after repeated trials and hearings, your Committee feel prepared to say that this (Brown & Allen's) Piano Forte is one of the very best they have ever met with, in the course of some seventeen years observation of the progress of Piano Forte manufacture in this country. In quality, combined with power and mellowness of tone, in evenness of tone from the full to the top of the scale, in its great excellence of the action, in thoroughness and elegance of workmanship throughout, in all its qualities, in short, which unitedly constitute a first rate Piano Forte, this instrument, in the opinion of your Committee, has not been surpassed by any Square Piano Forte hitherto produced among us, and they consider it emphatically worthy of the highest premium in its department.

—CERTIFICATE—

To whom it may concern:—I have had occasion to use, and to select for many friends, Piano fortes made by Messrs. Brown & Allen, and I do not hesitate to say that their instruments are not second to those made by any other person of persons in the city, and in many of the more important points, such as purity of tone and peculiarness of touch, durability, &c., I cannot but give to them the preference. I would therefore recommend to those who may wish to purchase, to call at 354 Washington street and examine for themselves.

KENNEDY'S

The Greatest of the Age!

MR. KENNEDY, of Roxbury, has discovered in one of our common pasture weeds a remedy that cures EVERY KIND OF HUMOR, from the worst Scrofula down to a common pimple. He has tried it in over eleven hundred cases, and never failed except in two. He has now in his possession over two hundred certificates of its value, all within twenty miles of Boston

Two bottles are warranted to cure a nursing sore mouth

One to three bottles will cure the worst kind of pimples on the face.

Two to three bottles will cure the system of boils.

Two bottles are warranted to cure the worst canker in the mouth and stomach.

Three to five bottles are warranted to cure the worst cases of erysipelas

One to two bottles are warranted to cure all humors in the eyes.

Two bottles are warranted to cure running in the ears and blotches in the hair.

Four to six bottles are warranted to cure corrupt and running ulcers.

One bottle will cure scaly eruptions of the skin.

Two to three bottles are warranted to cure the worst case of ring worm.

Two to three bottles are warranted to cure the most desperate cases of rheumatism.

Three to six bottles are warranted to cure salt-rheum.

Five to eight bottles will cure the very worst case of Scrofula.

A benefit is always experienced from the first bottle, and a perfect cure warranted when the above quantity is taken

Nothing looks so improbable to those who have in vain tried all the wonderful medicines of the day as, that a common weed, growing upon the pastures, and along old stone walls, should cure every humor in the system, yet it is now a settled fact. If you have a humor it has to start. There are no if's nor ands about it, as in some cases but not years. He has peddled over a thousand bottles of it in the vicinity of Boston, and knows the effects of it in every case. It has already done some of the greatest cures ever done in Massachusetts. He gave it to children a year old, to old people of sixty; and has seen puny looking children, whose flesh was soft and flabby, restored to a perfect state of health by one bottle

To those who are subject to sick headache, one bottle will always cure it. It gives great relief in catarrh and dizziness. Some who have taken it have been positive for years, and have been regulated by it. Where the body is sound it works quite easy, but where there is any derangement of the functions of nature, it will cause very singular feelings, but you must not be alarmed—they always disappear in from four days to a week.—There is never a bad result from it—on the contrary, when that feeling is gone, you will feel yourself like a new person. I heard some of the most extravagant encomiums of it that ever man listened to.

No change of diet ever necessary. Eat the best you can get and enough of it.

TESTIMONY FROM MAINE.

Capt Dennis Abbott, Brooklin, Maine, July 16, 1853, says: "I was taken sick one year ago last April, upon my passage from Havana to Charleston, S C. At the latter place I took medicine and procured a physician, but for ten days could obtain no relief, no sleep or appetite. At last taking up a newspaper having your advertisement of "Hoofland's German Bitters" in it, I sent for some immediately. This was about 10 o'clock, at 11 o' lock I took the first dose, and another at 6 o'clock. The effect was so rapid on me that I had a good appetite for supper, and rested well that night, and the next day found me a well man.—I have not been without your medicine since, having been sailing between Baltimore, Charleston, and the West India Islands ever since I have now given up going to sea and reside in this place, where you should have an agency, as you could sell large quantities of it."

Jos. D. Hall & Co, Presque Isle, Aroostook Co Maine, April 24, 1854, say "We herewith send you a certificate of a cure performed by the use of only one bottle of the German Bitters We think Mr Clark to be a man of veracity, and have no doubt of the truth of his story."

Messrs. Jos D Hall & Co.—Gentlemen—In answer to your inquiries I will state that my daughter, aged about 18 years, has been complaining of a pain in her side for six or seven years, and about the first of January last was taken down and confined to her bed The pain in her side was very severe, besides being troubled with pains between her shoulders and in her breast. From reading a number of cures performed by "Hoofland's German Bitters, I was induced to try them in her case, and sent to your store and purchased one bottle. She had taken it but a few days when she began to improve, and now, after taking only one bottle, she is enjoying better health than she has for years.—She feels no pain in her side or in any part of her body, and attributes her cure entirely to the German Bitters. WILLIAM CLARK.

You should bear in mind that these Bitters are entirely vegetable, thereby possessing advantages over most of the preparations recommended for similar diseases.

IMPORTANT PROCLAMATION!

A Great Mystery Explained.

In the year of our Lord 1847, in our capacities of analytical chemists, we discovered that by uniting certain vegetable agents, which had never before been used in medicine, we obtained properties possessing such a marvellous quick power over PAIN, that the moment it was applied to the parts affected with pain, all uneasiness ceased. The most torturing pains were relieved in an instant, and the most violent spasms and imitations were soothed, and the system restored to perfect ease in a few minutes

In 1849 we introduced this Remedy to the world under the name of

RADWAY'S READY RELIEF

It has been used, by hundreds of thousands throughout the United States, giving instant ease to all troubled with Pain or Sickness

One application externally, or a few drops taken internally, will instantly free the sufferer from the most violent and excruciating pains, and restore the weak, feeble, and prostrated frame to strength and vigor

No person has ever used RADWAY'S READY RELIEF without deriving some special benefit in less than fifteen minutes after its use

Let those who are now suffering any severe pains give it a trial, for in fifteen minutes they will enjoy ease and comfort.

RADWAY'S READY RELIEF

was the first and is the only remedy ever discovered that will stop the most torturing pains in a few seconds, and free the system from Rheumatic, Neuralgic, Nervous, and Miasmatic Disorders in a few hours It will cure and protect the system against a sudden attacks of—

CHOLERA,	DYSENTERY,
DIARRHŒA,	CHOLERA MORBUS,
BILIOUS CHOLIC,	FEVER AND AGUE,
PNEUMONIA,	INFLUENZA.

Bear in mind, it is a powerful Disinfectant, antiacid, diffusive stimulant, nervine, antispasmodic, and counter irritant.

THE R R. REMEDIES are medical discoveries of the present century They are prepared on an entire new and original theory, "to stop pain instantly," and protect the human system against sickness or any sudden attacks. The doses required to be taken are small. A few drops of READY RELIEF exercise a powerful influence over disease and action

IT HAS CURED

Rheumatism in four hours,
Neuralgia in one hour,
Croup in ten minutes,
Diarrhœa in fifteen minutes,
Toothache in one second,
Spasms in five minutes,
Sick Headache in fifteen minutes,
Chill Fever in fifteen minutes,
Chilblains in five minutes,
Sore Throat in four minutes,
Influenza in one hour

SPINAL COMPLAINTS, Stiff Joints, Cuts, Bruises, Wounds, Frost Bites, Cholera Morbus, Dysentery, Tic Doloreux, and all other complaints where there are severe pains, RADWAY'S READY RELIEF will instantly stop the pain, and quickly cure the disease

DR. J. H. SCHENCK'S SEA WEED TONIC,

—FOR THE—

Cure of Dyspepsia.

THIS remedy is composed of a compound preparation of a common weed growing along the sea shore, and is a certain remedy for the cure of Dyspepsia and its accompanying diseases, to wit

Sour and Sick Stomach, Loss of Appetite, Headache, Pain in the Side and Breast, Palpitation of the Heart Ulcers and Eruptions of all kinds, Chills and Fever, Gravel, and Diseases of the Kidneys, Nervousness, Weakness of the Limbs, Fainting Spells, and all diseases peculiar to Females

Nearly every person is more or less affected with Dyspepsia, or some of the diseases connected with it, and it is with feelings of pleasure that Dr Schenck can announce to all such the discovery of the virtues of the Sea Weed, which is just the remedy for their ailments Dyspepsia and the many diseases arising from it, is caused by the deficient secretion of the gastric juices, and weakness of the powers of the stomach The effect of the Sea Weed Tonic is felt soon after it is taken, as it supplies at once the principles of the deficient gastric juice, and the food is digested naturally. In fact the Tonic so nearly resembles the natural gastric juice that chemists even find difficulty in distinguishing them It gives tone and strengthens the stomach, thus enabling it to secrete the proper quality and quantity of Gastric juice, and Dyspepsia and all its sequelæ soon disappear

It is a well known fact that none suffer like the Dyspeptic, for in addition to the Dyspepsia there is often either Headache, Sour and Sick Stomach Pain in the Side, Palpitations of the Heart, Chills and Fever, Gravel, Disease of the Kidneys, Nervous Weakness and Tremors, General Debility, Faintness, Loss of Appetite, Bad Taste, Fever, Stoppages in Females, all or each of them arising from a disordered state of the Stomach, and here is a newly discovered remedy for the trifling sum of one dollar, that will cure all this train of diseases

Now, Dyspeptic, will you not avail yourself of this remedy for so trifling a cost? or will you still suffer on? The choice is for you to make. The Sea Weed Tonic is a pleasant bitters, giving a person a good appetite and good digestion is put up in quart bottle, always agrees with the stomach, and one bottle generally effects a cure Whenever the bowels are costive, the tongue furred, or the complexion sallow, a few of Schenck's Mandrake or Liver Pills are to be used. A box of these Pills accompany each bottle of the Tonic, and will be found in a recess of the bottle, covered with a label

SCHENCK'S MANDRAKE PILLS

Will be found to possess those qualities necessary to the total eradication of all bilious attacks, prompt to start the secretions of the liver and give a healthy tone to the entire system. Indeed, it is no ordinary discovery in Medical Science, to have invented a remedy for these stubborn complaints, which develope all the results produced by a heretofore free use of calomel—a mineral justly dreaded by mankind—and acknowledged to be destructive in the extreme to the human system That the properties of certain vegetables comprise all the virtues of calomel, without its injurious tendencies, is now an admitted fact, rendered indisputable by scientific researches; and those who use the Mandrake Pill, will be fully satisfied that the best medicines are those provided by nature in the common roots and herbs of the fields

The Pills open the bowels and correct all bilious derangements without salivation
